129

THE VALE OF AVOCA,

BALLAD,

Written by

CHARLES JEFFERYS,

The Music by

STEPHEN GLOVER.

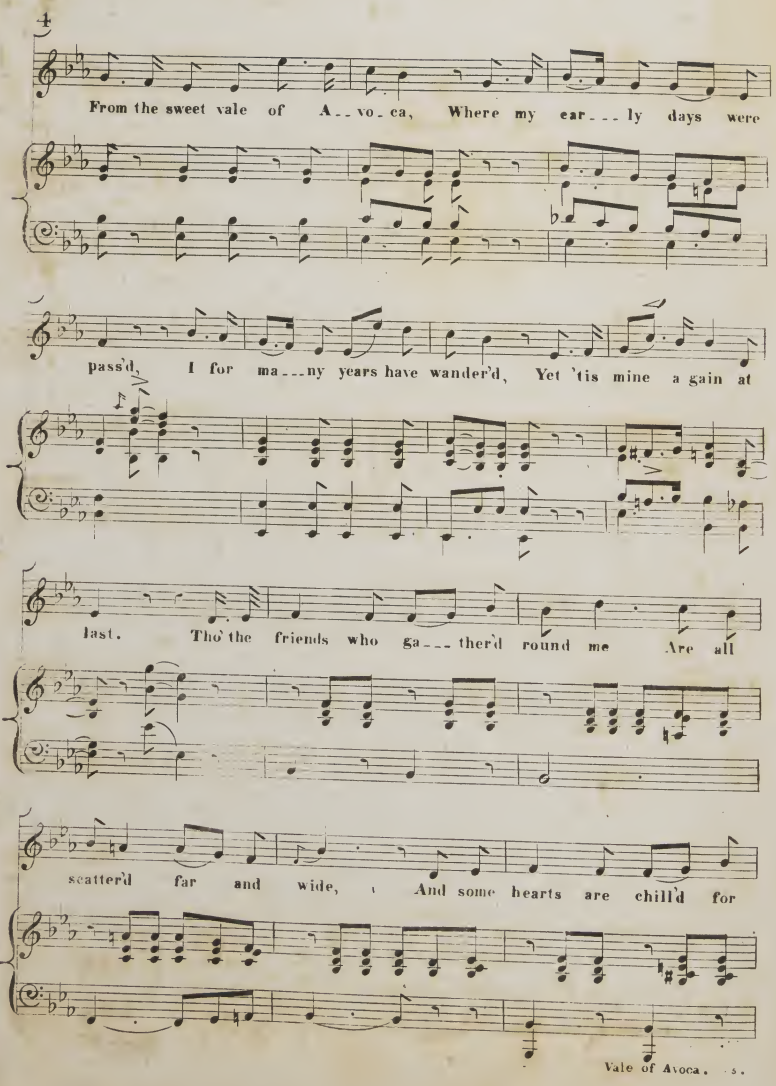
NEW YORK, PUBLISHED BY FIRTH & HALL, No 1, FRANKLIN SQUE

30.

131.

THE VALE OF AVOCA.

Written by CHARLES JEFFERYS. Composed by STEPHEN GLOVER.



4
From the sweet vale of A--vo-ca, Where my ear---ly days were pass'd, I for ma---ny years have wander'd, Yet 'tis mine a gain at last. Tho' the friends who ga---ther'd round me Are all scatter'd far and wide, And some hearts are chill'd for

Rallen:
Tempo vivace.
e-ver For whom mine has of--ten sigh'd, Yet in all my joys and Colla voce.
sorrows, Over land, and o---ver sea..... Oh! the sweet Dim.
Ritard.
vale of A---vo--ca Was the one dear spot to me.
A tempo.
Cres: Dim: Ritard: Cres: f
p Vale of Avoca.

O'er thy broad waves, thou At--lan-tic, I have pass'd full ma-ny a year, And, when none were nigh to mark me, I have wept the silent tear I have thought of E-----rin's fair ones, And of ONE most dear to me, Till my yearn--ing heart hath

Rallen:
Tempo vivace.
pant-ed For my home be-yond the sea; Yes! where e---ver I have Colla voce.
wander'd Over land and o---ver sea..... Oh! the sweet Dim: Ritard.
vale of A---vo-ca Was the one dear spot to me.
A tempo.
Cres: Dim.
Ritard
Cres: f
p Vale of Avoca.

136.